Photocopies and prints
You may copy from any printed text and from webpages.
You can copy or print 20% of the text, but no more than 50 pages.
REMEMBER to cite your sources: Title, author, publisher.

Scan
You MAY scan 20%, but no more than 50 pages per publication per semester.
You may NOT:
- change the scanned text.
- send the files by mail. Scanned files must be placed on e-learn.sdu.dk
- scan newspapers and daily papers.
REMEMBER to cite your sources: Title, author, publisher.

E-books and electronic journals
The library provides access to a wide range of e-journals and e-books that you can use in your courses.
Many of them can be used in PDF-format at elearn.sdu.dk, however, you must be aware that the titles are subject to various licensing rules.
Please contact the library for more information: jensdam@bib.sdu.dk or likj@bib.sdu.dk, or call 6550 4411.

Internet
Internet pages are subject to copyright law, just like other materials.
You MAY link to, and print from, authorized homepages.
Videos which have been placed legally on YouTube can be embedded in elearn.sdu.dk
You may NOT: - copy entire webpages to elearn.sdu.dk

Movies
SDU does NOT have an agreement regarding the use of movies.
If you wish to use motion pictures in your courses, you will have to get permission from the copyright holders.
You are allowed to use legal YouTube videos on elearn.sdu.dk

Pictures
You can use pictures from books and the internet in your IN-HOUSE lectures and courses. The pictures may NOT be used outside the University.
As an employee or student at SDU you have access to various image archives, e.g. Colourbox.dk. The materials in Colourbox can be used freely for teaching, papers and articles or marketing, etc. - also OUTSIDE the University.
REMEMBER to cite your sources.

Radio and TV
You have access to a large selection of radio and TV programs via Mediestream.
You are allowed to copy and store radio and TV programs from a large number of channels, and to place the copied programs on e-learn.sdu.dk.
You are NOT allowed to copy motion pictures which have been shown on TV, if they are produced for the cinema.

Commercials
For research and educational purposes you can find a wide range of commercials via Mediestream.
Mediestream has cinema commercials from 1907-1995 and commercials from the TV station TV 2 from 1988-2005.
New commercials will be added continuously.

Music
SDU does NOT have an agreement regarding the use of music.
If you wish to use music in your class sessions, you will have to get permission from the copyright holders.
Using recorded music in the public requires an agreement with KODA which administers the copyright of musicians and music companies.
Visit www.koda.dk for more information.

Copyright rules for lectures at SDU - a quick guide

www.sdu.dk/copyright